5. The hospital is equipped with two ambulances, one 3-ton truck, and one car which is used by the "directorate." The hospital is enclosed by a picket fence and hedge. Between the buildings are forest-trees, so that the area resembles a park.
6. Persons desiring care at the hospital first present themselves at their rayon clinic for the necessary examination. No documents are required, except for the identity card. At the clinic (ambulatory), the doctor examines the patient and refers him to the special department of the hospital if he decides the patient needs hospitalization. All hospital care is free of charge, including surgery, medicines, special care, and food.
7. After having been discharged from the hospital, patients still in need of medical care report again to their rayon clinic. The clinic doctor prescribes necessary medicines according to the diagnosis of the hospital physicians. In this case, the medical examinations are free, but the patients must purchase needed prescriptions from the State pharmacies.

8. All medicines, with the exception of aspirin, magnesium, and bicarbonates, are under State control and may be purchased only with the prescription of a clinic doctor of a rayon or a doctor of the Civilian Hospital. The attending physician must specify on the prescription the duration of the treatment, and the pharmacist prepares the medicines necessary for the total period. If the treatment is to be extended, the physician must refer to the prescription and indicate the period of extension. Without the expired prescription, it is impossible to obtain the prescribed medicines. The pharmacies are kept under strict surveillance by the Ministry of Public Health, which controls all the prescriptions and checks for falsifications.
9. [] a certain shortage of penicillin and streptomycin, but [] it is possible to purchase other medicines at the principal pharmacies. 25X1
10. The city of Sofia is divided into six rayons, each of which has a clinic and is controlled by personnel subordinate to the Ministry of Public Health.
